To whom it May Concern,

To fulfil my ambitions of becoming a top professional tennis player, it is important that I receive the best guidance in all aspects of my game. Relating to the crucial mental side of tennis, in my opinion, Colleen Kaczor is the best guidance I have encountered. Under Colleen's directions my mental skills have matured unbelievably and my self-image and confidence are at a record high. Colleen is a very motivating and positive person and she has the gift of making others feel good about themselves.

Colleen Kaczor has the ability to assist a lot of people with her special talent, and I consider her an asset +0 Australia.

Yours Faithfully,

Lara Howes
